

REMEMBER THE ALAMO

Donovan Leitch

C G C F C

Eight hundred and eighty he challenged the travellers to die,

C G C F C

By a line that he drew with his sword as the battle drew nigh,

F C

Every man that stepped over the line was for glory

F C

And he that was left better fly,

C G C F C C7

For over the line stepped one hundred and seventy nine.

F C

Hey at Santa Anna they're killing our soldiers below

F C

So the rest of Texas will know,

G C

And remember the Alamo

C G C F C

Jim Bowie lay dying his blood and his powder were dry

C G C F C

But his knife had been willing to take him a few in reply

F C

Young Davey Crockett lay laughin and dyin

F C

The blood and the sweat in his eye

C G C F C C7

For texas and freedom a man was more willing to die

REFR

C G C F C

Eight hundred and eighty he challenged the travellers to die,

C G C F C

By a line that he drew with his sword as the battle drew nigh,

F C

Every man that stepped over the line was for glory

F C

And he that was left better fly,

C G C F C

For over the line stepped one hundred and seventy nine.

F C
Hey at Santa Anna they're killing our soldiers below

F C
So the rest of Texas will know,

G C
And remember the Alamo

C G C F C
Jim Bowie lay dying his blood and his powder were dry

C G C F C
But his knife had been willing to take him a few in reply

F C
Young Davey Crockett lay laughin and dyin

F C
The blood and the sweat in his eye

C G C F C C7
For texas and freedom a man was more willing to die

REFR.