

Did you ever have to make up your mind

John Sebastian

      G                  [C]                  [G  C]
Did you ever have to make up your mind
      G          [C]                  G      E
To pick up on one and leave the other behind
      G      D                  C
It's not often easy, and not often kind
          D                          G
Did you ever have to make up your mind

verse 2:

      G                  [C]                  [G  C]
Did you ever have to finally decide
      G          [C]                  G      E
To say yes to one and let the other one ride
      G      D                  C
There's so many changes and tears you must hide
          D                          G
Did you ever have to finally decide

chorus 1:

          E7
Sometimes there's one with big blue eyes, cute as a bunny
      A7
With hair down to here and plenty of money
      C          A7                  G      E7
And just when you think she's that one in the world
      D          Dsus4          D          Dsus4
Your heart gets stolen by some mousy little girl and...

[repeat verse 1 ("Then you know you better...")]

[guitar solo over verse chords]

chorus 2:

          E7
Sometimes you really dig a girl the moment you kiss her
      A7
And then you get distracted by her older sister
      C          A7                  G      E7
Then in walks her father, and takes you in line
      D          Dsus4          D          Dsus4
And says "better go home, son, and make up your mind"

[repeat verse 3 ("Then you bet you better...")]

coda: (repeat last bar of intro)
